

HUMANIST & SECULARIST
LIBERAL DEMOCRATS

BOURNEMOUTH 2015
19-23 September
THE ESSENTIAL EVENTS

Version: 16 Sept 2015

HSLD Sunday evening, 6.15-7.15pm
The Challenges Facing Secularism in Britain Today, + AGM Marriott Highcliff, Yeovil Suite

Keith Porteous Wood, of the National Secular Society, on persuading a hostile establishment that secularism is more important than ever.

And our AGM: your chance to elect your new committee, and even stand for election yourself – new and returning campaigners are always welcome.

All are welcome to attend, although only HSLD members can vote in the AGM.

CentreForum Monday morning, 9.30-10.30am
Fundamentalism, Radicalisation and the Use of Terror Hermitage Hotel, Clifton Suite

Lord John Alderdice in conversation with Miranda Green about fundamentalism, radicalisation and the use of terror.

HSLD Monday lunchtime, 1-2pm
Secularism – a Core Liberal Democrat Value Hermitage Hotel, Clifton Suite

As the party reviews its values, how can we ensure that secularism remains at the heart of Liberal Democrat policy, and why does it matter?

With Dr Evan Harris, Pavan Dhaliwal (British Humanist Association) and Keith Porteous Wood (National Secular Society).

British Humanist Association Tuesday lunchtime, 1-2pm
What Role for Humanist Lib Dems in Opposition? Conference Centre, Bayview 1

Many humanist Lib Dem MPs lost their seats in the May election. The Lib Dems continue to have many progressive policies which accord with humanist values. How can humanist Lib Dems work in opposition and at the grass roots level to ensure their voices are heard?

With Andrew Copson (BHA), Julian Huppert and Baroness Lorely Burt.

*Don't miss the Exhibition, close to the main auditorium. Exhibitors include:
Humanist & Secularist Liberal Democrats (naturally)
British Humanist Association Lib Dem Christian Forum Religious Education*